EXEMPLARY SERVICE AWARD

ALAN STEVENS

Through his selfless dedication and efforts, Alan Stevens has:

- consistently advanced the goals and objectives of the GSDI Association from the earliest inception and development of the organization,
- provided exemplary support in advancing and managing the small grants program that supports SDI initiatives and projects across the globe in economically disadvantaged nations,
- provided strong management skills in helping to organize this and numerous past GSDI World conferences,
- provided long-continued, consistent, and strong support in advising the organization generally on numerous administrative and policy matters, and
- done all of this with a smile and wonderful sense of humor.

In recognition of his numerous contributions,
the GSDI Association hereby names
Alan Stevens as the first recipient of its Exemplary Service Award.
